Authorized Window	Date: Time:
Approved API service
Preparation of data by AIPP (optional)	$

AIPP authorizes the above Authorized Institution (as defined above) to permit users to conduct TDM solely for educational and research purposes. The TDM must be performed using an AIPP-approved API service, and the Authorized Institution must abide by any limits on load rates and download rates conveyed to Authorized Users from time to time. In no event will the Authorized Institution or any of its Authorized Users use or share the results from the TDM in a manner that competes with the Subscribed Products or services, for the use or benefit of any third party, or otherwise harm the economic interest of AIPP, including, without limitation, by posting the results on the Internet for the public to access, regardless of whether the results can be reconstructed to its original, human readable form. For the sake of clarity, Authorized Institution shall not share the results from the TDM with any third party, including, without limitation, CRUI and Institutions (if they are not also the Authorized Institution). For the avoidance of doubt, the above provision does not refer to publications and posting reasonable extracts.

TDM may be performed on the original Subscribed Products and services or on data extracted from the raw data available on the AIPP platform. The extracted or raw data and the TDM results may only be stored and analyzed within the Authorized Institution's secure network that is not accessible by any unauthorized third parties.

The TDM may only be performed during the Authorized Window set forth above. During the Authorized Window, if AIPP reasonably determines that the TDM is causing an unreasonable burden on AIPP's network or substantially interferes with other users' access to the AIPP platform and the Subscribed Products or services, Authorized Institution will temporarily suspend such activity upon AIPP's request, and only resume once AIPP notifies the Authorized Institution to do so.

After termination of the Contract, all TDM results provided pursuant to this Appendix will continue to be subject to Section 3.1(h).
